Demonstrate. Teach the new skill, model with clear explanations, verbalize your thinking process.

- Point to the letter at the top of the card. The name of this letter is Cc.
- Point to the picture. The sound this letter makes is /k/, as in kitten.

I DO IT!

If students need support with:	Then try this:
Sound production/identification Allow them to use handheld mirrors with the lesson, if available.	<table border="1" data-bbox="676 743 1864 821"> <thead> <tr> <th data-bbox="676 743 926 781">Sound</th> <th data-bbox="926 743 1365 781">Where</th> <th data-bbox="1365 743 1614 781">What</th> <th data-bbox="1614 743 1864 781">How</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td data-bbox="676 781 926 821">/k/</td> <td data-bbox="926 781 1365 821">Back of tongue on roof of mouth</td> <td data-bbox="1365 781 1614 821">Tongue</td> <td data-bbox="1614 781 1864 821">Voice off</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> Students may benefit from understanding how and where a letter-sound is made. Teaching the shape of the mouth, the articulators (the parts of the mouth that block the flow of air when making sounds), and the voice can aid in correct pronunciation of each sound. Here's a sample: The name of this letter is Cc. The sound it makes is /k/. A spelling for /k/ is c. Remember, /k/ is a sound that cannot be held. When I make the sound /k/, my mouth looks like this. Model the shape of your mouth as you make the sound /k/. Can you make your mouth look like mine? If possible, let students use handheld mirrors to check the shape of the mouth. When I make the sound /k/, I am touching the back of my tongue to the roof of my mouth. Then I drop my tongue down and blow out air to make the sound /k/. Can you feel the back of your tongue on the roof of your mouth when you make the sound /k/? Again, let students use handheld mirrors, if available. When I make the sound /k/, my voice is off. I don't use my voice to make the sound /k/. If I put my hand on my throat when I make the sound /k/, I cannot feel a vibration. Put your hand on your throat and say the sound /k/. Do you feel a vibration?				Sound	Where	What	How	/k/	Back of tongue on roof of mouth	Tongue	Voice off
Sound	Where	What	How
/k/	Back of tongue on roof of mouth	Tongue	Voice off

Letter Cc Introduction

WE DO IT!

Provide guided practice.

Let's try it together! I will say the steps as you do them. Show students the sound-spelling card for Cc.

The name of the letter is Cc. Name? Students respond with letter name: Cc.

The sound the letter makes is /k/. Sound? Students respond with letter sound: /k/.

A spelling for /k/ is c. Spelling? Students respond with the spelling: c.

Review 1-2 times, if needed: Name? Sound? Spelling?

YOU DO IT!

Provide independent practice.

Your turn. I will hold the card in front of one student at a time. I will ask that student to tell me the name, the sound, or the spelling. Listen closely so you know which one to say out loud.

Hold the card up so everyone can see it. Then, hold the card directly in front of one student and say one of the following:

Name? Student responds with letter name.

Sound? Student responds with letter sound.

Spelling? Student responds with letter name.

Repeat the routine so that each student has the opportunity to say the name, the sound, and the spelling.

Now we know that the name of the letter is Cc. The sound the letter makes is /k/, and a spelling for /k/ is c.

OR: Now we know that when we want to write the sound /k/, we can use the letter c.

Teacher Tip: When asking for individual student responses, do NOT go in a predictable order (round robin)! Keep the students on their toes by skipping around.

ASSESS

Assess students (formally or informally). Determine the level of mastery for the stated objective.

Observe individual students as they respond during guided and independent practice.
Scaffold or correct all errors. Provide specific feedback for accurate responses.

Teacher Tip: As students learn more and more letter sounds, you can begin or end the session with a lightning round of sounds, where you flash students the sound-spelling cards and students make the sounds as quickly as possible.

ENRICH/EXTEND

Enrichment/Extension. Provide enrichment and extension activities for students who need less support.

For students who show mastery of letter-sound correspondences, work toward automaticity in blending words with two or more sounds using known graphemes.
